

They Say It's Wonderful: The Songs of Ethel Merman

Ethel Merman was a Broadway superstar for over four decades — introducing standards such as "I Got Rhythm," "Life Is Just A Bowl Of Cherries," "I Get A Kick Out Of You," "There's No Business Like Show Business," and "It's De-Lovely." Born and raised in Astoria, NY, Merman sang as a child for soldiers stationed on Long Island during the first World War. After high school she worked as a secretary while singing at night in clubs and cabarets until she was cast by the Gershwin brothers in their musical Girl Crazy. Merman went on to star in musicals by Cole Porter — who wrote "Anything Goes," "Down In The Depths on the 90th Floor," "You're The Top," and "Ridin' High" for her; by Irving Berlin — who wrote "They Say It's Wonderful," "You're Just In Love," "I Got The Sun In The Morning," and "I Got Lost In His Arms" for her; and by Jule Styne and Stephen Sondheim — who wrote "Everything's Coming Up Roses," "Small World," "Some People," and "You'll Never Get Away From Me" for her. Merman also made many movies and performed on radio and television for decades — but her personal life was full of heart-ache. Pianist Joe Reid and singer Will McMillan will celebrate her songs and share a few stories about her astounding career.

Will McMillan has performed as a featured vocalist at venues ranging from Scullers Jazz Club to Yin Par Le Garcon Chinois (Shanghai). For years McMillan hosted "Will & Company," a series at the Blacksmith House in Harvard Square highlighting local performers and songwriters, which earned him an IRNE Award for Best Cabaret Show in a Small Venue. He has released four CDs — "Sketchbook 1" and "Blame Those Gershwins" with pianist Steve Sweeting, "Reel One" with the vocal ensemble At The Movies, and "If I Loved You," with singer Bobbi Carrey and pianist Doug Hammer. You are welcome to visit his web site, willsings.com, find him singing on lots of digital music platforms — such as Pandora, Spotify, Amazon and Apple Music — by searching for "Will McMillan featuring Doug Hammer," watch him sing on YouTube by searching "Timberlane Pops with Will McMillan" or listen to music at his blog, AMusicalifeOnPlanetEarth.WordPress.com.

Pianist Joe Reid enjoys a busy music career, playing 100+ concerts a year. He performs with a wide range of jazz and classical musicians, and has worked with a broad spectrum of theatre groups, jazz and chamber ensembles and dance troupes. Joe has worked as an accompanist for the Boston Conservatory, the Longy School of Music, the New School of Music in Cambridge and the Mark Morris Dance Company.
