

You Made Me Love You

Judy Garland was one of the most beloved entertainers of the 20th century — with a 45-year career embracing vaudeville, movies, radio, TV, and live concert performances. Many great songs were written for her to sing, including "Over The Rainbow," "The Man That Got Away," "The Boy Next Door," "How About You?" "On The Atchison, Topeka and the Santa Fe," "The Trolley Song," and "Have Yourself A Merry Little Christmas." Will and Joe will perform these songs as well as selections from her legendary Carnegie Hall concerts — a live recording of which earned her the Grammy award for Album of the Year in 1961 — and share some stories about the ups and downs of her extraordinary life.

Will McMillan has performed as a featured vocalist at venues ranging from Scullers Jazz Club to Yin Par Le Garçon Chinois (Shanghai). For years McMillan hosted "Will & Company," a series at the Blacksmith House in Harvard Square highlighting local performers and songwriters, which earned him an IRNE Award for Best Cabaret Show in a Small Venue. He has released four CDs — "Sketchbook 1" and "Blame Those Gershwins" with pianist Steve Sweeting, "Reel One" with the vocal ensemble At The Movies, and "If I Loved You," with singer Bobbi Carrey and pianist Doug Hammer. You are welcome to visit his web site, willsings.com, find him singing on lots of digital music platforms — such as Pandora, Spotify, Amazon and Apple Music — by searching for "Will McMillan featuring Doug Hammer," watch him sing on YouTube by searching "Timberlane Pops with Will McMillan" or listen to music at his blog, AMusicalifeOnPlanetEarth.WordPress.com.
